

A high-quality stainless steel industrial flange, likely made of 304 or 316 grade. It features a circular face with four evenly spaced bolt holes for secure mounting. The central hub has a recessed area with some faint markings. A large, semi-transparent red watermark '2RS.bg' is overlaid across the center of the image. The flange is shown at an angle, highlighting its polished finish and robust construction.